

Committed to engineering your best solution:

SGC Engineering (SGC) provides a proven approach to client GIS and data management needs through our solutions-based GIS support services. SGC’s dedicated GIS team works closely with our clients to identify and understand project needs, devise a strategy and plan, and effectively deliver a solution. We specialize in spatial data compilation and custom application development to give our clients the tools necessary to effectively manage a project from the planning stages through development and into operations.

Professional GIS / Data Management services:

- Data collection and compilation
- Spatial Data Management
- Application Development
- System / Geodatabase Design
- Mobile Data Collection Solutions
- Web-based spatial data delivery
- Project Management / Tracking Solutions
- Map design and production
- Asset Management
- ArcGIS Online Implementation

Serving the following industries:

- Oil and Natural Gas Pipelines
- Electrical Transmission
- Municipalities
- Water / Wastewater Utilities
- Wind Power Development
- Land Services / Right-of-Way

Special Achievement in GIS
2014 Award Winner

The advantages of engaging SGC:

- We develop cost-effective solutions to support the economics of any project by employing the latest trusted technologies with dynamic strategies.
- Our customized data services are designed to provide instant access to information and support critical project decisions.
- Our experienced staff work closely with our clients to understand client objectives and act as an extension of their staff by providing project and technical resource support.

Member of:

